

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 2023

09:00-10:30	Plenary Session
09:15-09:45	Welcome Speeches and Greetings: Judit Mészáros, President, Sándor Ferenczi Society; Anett Felházi , Secretary, Hungarian Psychoanalytical Society; Csongor Juhos , President, Free Association Lisbon;
09:45-10:30	Opening Lecture: Judit Mészáros: What Does our Discipline Owe to Ferenczi? Chair: Howard Levine
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:30	Room 1.	Room 2.	Room 3.	Room 4.	Room 5.
Panel Discussion	Early Traumas and Fragmentation (Case Studies) Guy Millon: Playing in the Unmade Road: Transference and Atomization Basmat Klein: Housing the Unconscious – Early Trauma and its Manifestation in the Physical House Csongor Juhos: Cut / Paste / Cut: On Attempts of Editing a Fragmented Mind Chair: Erika Engel	Unwelcome Child and Shadowless Child Keren Cohen: The Unwelcome Child and His “Disgust Envelope” Tracy Simon: Coming into Being: The Paradoxical Temporalities of Motherhood in Psychoanalysis Kathleen Kelley-Lainé: Ferenczi and the Shadowless Child Chair: Martin Mahler	Mutuality and Self-Reflection Uriel García Varela: The Notion of Mutuality throughout the Works of Sándor Ferenczi Agnieszka Sobolewska: Re-Reading “Clinical Diary”: Ferenczi’s Late (Self-) Analytic Practices between the Spoken and Written Word Lia Roth: Ferenczi, a Modest Genius Chair: Gavril Hercz	Ferenczi and Beyond: Winnicott, Bálint and Kohut Emanuel Berman: Bálint and Ferenczi: On Rescue and Disillusionment Sergio Gomes: Thalassa: The Ferenczian Matrix in Winnicott’s Clinical Thought Shigeyuki Mori: On Conviction, Recall, and Identification: Ferenczi’s Fundamental Reconceptualization of Psychoanalysis Chair: Andrea Sinkovics	Biphasic Traumatization, Victim-Aggressor Relationship Adél Ferencz: Integrity and Fragmentation: Parallels between Sandor Ferenczi’s Biphasic Trauma Theory and Alice Miller’s Work Varda Blum: Victim-Aggressor Relationship in Psychoanalysis and in Visual Art Chair: Laura Tarafas
	12:30-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:30	Room 1.	Room 2.	Room 3.	Room 4.	Room 5.
Panel Discussion	Heritage of Elizabeth and Margaret Severn Arnold Rachman: Returning the Voice of Elizabeth Severn to Contemporary Psychoanalysis Fergal Brady: Leottabeth: A Historical Psychological Novel (ELIZABETH SEVERN) Carina Mia Wong, Emma Commander Moley: Elizabeth Severn: Evil Genius, is a Six-part Historical Television Series Chair: Judit Mészáros	Mother-Infant Relationship Julianna Vamos: From the Thalassal Reverie to the Enlightening Environment Zsófia Székely: Maternal, Material and Spiritual: In and out of Thalassa Krisztián Indries: Psychic Umbilical Cord. The Evaluation of the Prenatal Bonding Analysis Method Chair: Kathleen Kelley-Lainé	Dilemmas of Treatment and Supervision Bori Sarkadi: “Now the Question: Must Every Case be Mutual – and to What Extent?” Clinical Dilemmas in Psychoanalysis Karen Dougherty: Teach and Treat? Analyst–Patient over Identification and the Question of the Budapest Supervision Model Chair: João Mendes Ferreira	Feminism and Critical Psychology Eveline List: The Unwelcome Daughter and her Death Drive Maria Laguna: Critical Psychology and Ferenczi’s Approach to Psychoanalysis: Two Dialects of the Same Language Anna Borgos: “Don’t let the Feminists’ Objections Mislead us...”: Interactions between Psychoanalytic and Feminist Discourses in the Early 20 th Century Chair: Noemi Ford	Psychoanalysis and Society Tormod Knutsen: The Traumatic Origin of the Psychoanalytic Movement in Norway Julianna Pusztai: Who are we Becoming? A Psycho-social Reflection of Psychic and Power in the Contemporary Narrative of Psychoanalysis Luís Miguel Vieira, João Adolfo Nogueira: Therapy in Creative Spaces. A Way to Catalyze the Unconscious in Resymbolization Chair: Márk Bérdi
	15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-17:30	Room 1.	Room 2.	Room 3.	Room 4.	Room 5.
Panel Discussion	Psychoanalytic Institutions and their Discontent Nicolas Gougoulis: 100 Years of an Unfinished Debate: The 1922 Prize and its Impact Nika Mavrody: Is Ferenczi’s Theory of Sexuality Psychoanalysis? Olivia Farkas: The Transmission of Ferenczi’s Ideas for over 100 Years – A French Example (But Not Only) Chair: Lia Roth	Mutual Analysis, Boundaries and Curiosity Tímea Deák-Kovács: Ferenczi vs Yalom – The Mutual Analysis Ambrus Balázs: The Rule of the Counter-Question, Curiosity and/or Defense? Chair: Antal Bókey		Narratives of Self Thomas A. Williams: Students Tell their Lives: Constructing Identities through Narratives in Humanities Education Irayetzin Hernández: Transference as a Bridge in an Analysis: Treatment in a Foreign Language Katalin Faluvégi: Ferenczi’s Contribution to Linguistics Chair: Csaba Pléh	Ferenczi Dialogues: On Trauma and Catastrophe Márton Szemerey: Some Corporeal Aspects of Ferenczi’s Clinical and Theoretical Innovations Jakob Staberg: Instead of Language: Confusion. Freud/Ferenczi Raluca Soreanu: Catastrophe and the Creativity of Fragments Chair: Dóra Lőrík
	09:00-20:00	ALL DAY FILMS AT CEU
20:00	Dinner (optional)

SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 2023

09:00-10:30	Plenary Session
	Individual and Complex Trauma and Resilience Clara Mucci: Trauma, Resilience and Survival Raluca Soreanu: The Psychic Life of Fragments: On Trauma and Splitting in Sándor Ferenczi Lilla Hárdi: “My Mental Spine is Broken...” The Complex Trauma of Refugees Chair: Arnold Rachman
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:30	Room 1.	Room 2.	Room 3.	Room 4.
Panel Discussion	Language, Culture and Psychoanalysis Wei Xiong: The Paradox of Chinese Symbolism – Reflections of a Chinese Psychoanalyst Tuba Tokgoz: Multiple Translations: On being Analyzed in one’s Second Language Laura Tarafas: Moving from Language to Life. The Intricate Babel of the Psychoanalytic Clinic Chair: Anna Mária Hansjürgens	Transgenerational Trauma Dimitrios Tachmatzidis: Greek Civil War: An Assessment of Transgenerational Transmission of Trauma in Elder Survivors Tihamér Bakó, Katalin Zana: The Vehicle of Transgenerational Trauma: The Transgenerational Atmosphere João Mendes Ferreira: Life? Theatre? or Death? – The Artistic Work of Charlotte Salomon as a Ferenczian Metaphor for Approaching Trauma, Identity, and Gender Development in our Times Chair: Eveline List	Theories in Case Presentations Andrea Shalom Kornhauser: “When her Longing Unravels her” – from the Love of God, to Analytic Love, and Back Again Julien Bufnoir: “Lost in a Character”. Relevance of Sandor Ferenczi’s Theories in the Comprehension and Therapy Treatment of a Patient who had Cancer in his Childhood Júlia Frigyes: The Appearance of “Universal Egg” at Birth, Childbirth and Traumatic Experiences Chair: Katalin Barcza-McQueen	Ferenczi’s Ideas Hypnosis, in Psychiatry and Residential Institutions Éva Bányai: Ferenczi’s Contribution to the Field of Hypnosis: “Maternal” and “Paternal” Types of Hypnosis Attila Bánfalvi: From Mutual Analysis to Open Dialogue (Ferenczi’s Legacy in the Context of the Crisis of (Bio) Psychiatry) Michel Lamart: Trauma, Handicap and Suffering in Institution Chair: Tamás Tényi
	12:30-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:30	Room 1.	Room 2.	Room 3.	Room 4.
Panel Discussion	The Unwelcome Child Miriam Steele: The Adoption Context: From Unwelcome to Welcome Children Anna Vincze: Emotional Resonance with the Patient – Lack of Maternal Emotional Presence. Sándor Ferenczi and Heinz Kohut Anna Balas: The Lifelong Impact of being Born as an “Unwelcome Child” Chair: Tracy Simon	Trauma and Immigration Adriana Cuenca Carrara: The Unwelcome Immigrant: The Border Experience Noemi Ford: The Trauma of Immigration: Loss of Self, Dissociation and Unformulated Experiences during the Immigrant Experience Ruth Lijtmaer: The Dangerous Others. Fear of the Virus and Fear of Immigrants: Both Unwelcome Children to be Removed Chair: Lilla Hárdi	Dialogue and Intersubjectivity Jorgelina Corbatta: Dialogue between Manuel Puig’s Narrative and Ferenczi’s Intersubjective Therapeutic Technique Priya Tiwari: Role of a ‘Felt-Listening Other’ in the Asymmetrical Field of Dependence: Contemporary Reading of Ferenczi to Draw out the Metapsychological Need for Regard in a Narcissistic Dependence as a Subject Link Chair: Agnieszka Sobolewska	The Realm of the Interpsychic Emanuele Prosepe: Clash of the (Inner)Worlds: Subjectivity and Alterity in the Realm of the Inter-Psychic Wang Wei-Hsiu: Integration of Budding Triangular Space: Starting with a Fragment of a Mind in a Patient Requesting Internet Psychotherapy Nida Paracha: Ferenczi in the Psychedelic Age Chair: Csaba Szummer
	15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-17:30	Room 1.	Room 2.	Room 3.
Panel Discussion	Sándor Ferenczi, Margaret & Elizabeth Severn: Relationship and Legacy Christopher Fortune: Interviewing Margaret: The “Little Severn” Peter Lipskis: The Legacy of Elizabeth Severn: A Personal Narrative Chair: Fergal Brady	Art, Art Brut and Film Monika Perenyi & Mónika Takács: The Patient May be Cured, but the Doctor is Never Cured. Portraits of Inmates. Doctors and Patients from the Ancient World of Mental Asylums Monika Perenyi: Imaginary Dwellings and Dreampalaces. Irene Jakab, a Psychiatrist’s Poetic and Freudian Approach to the Visionary Architecture and Art Brut Chair: Katalin Faluvégi	Unwelcome Child in the Human Environment Kathleen Del Mar Miller: The Unwelcome Child and the More-Than-Human Environment Ana Archangelo, Fabio Camargo Villela: Ferenczi’s Unwelcome Child and Psychic Survival in Schools after the COVID-19 Pandemic Chair: Anna Balas
	17:45-19:45	Garden party at the Ferenczi House with opening of the Severn Section of the Ferenczi House Archives by Arnold Rachman (in case of good weather)

SUNDAY, JUNE 11, 2023

09:00-09:45	Plenary Session – Keynote Address
	Adrienne Harris: The Contemporary Power of Ferenczi’s Essay on the Unwelcome Child Chair: Judit Mészáros
09:45-10:15	Coffee break
10:15-12:15	Plenary Session
	Bridge between Past, Present and Future Howard B. Levine: Thoughts on Trauma, Love, Primitive Mind States and Therapeutic Action in Contemporary Psychoanalysis Csaba Pléh: David Rapaport and the Multiplicity of Thought Tamás Tényi: Ferenczi and Searles on Non-Human Environment – Historical and Current Perspectives György Gergely: Recent Advances in Understanding the Social Cognitive Mechanisms Underlying Attachment Representations Chairs: Clara Mucci, Attila Bánfalvi
12:15-12:45	Plenary Discussion of the Conference Chairs: Raluca Soreanu, Attila Bánfalvi, Judit Mészáros
12:45-14:00	Farewell and Drink Reception				